

I. Staffing

A. New Hires

The Sociology conducted a search in a timely manner but failed to hire anyone.

Two candidates who were offered the position took jobs at other universities.

The department wanted to offer the position to a third candidate whom, but the administration, despite having approved her to come for an interview, refused to make her an offer.

B. Tenure, Promotions, Retirements

Prof. Lichtenberg, formerly of Justice Studies, was reassigned to Sociology and was turned down for tenure.

C. Graduate Assistants

No more program, nor more assistants.

II. Curriculum Development

Four courses were moved out of Sociology and into Justice Studies

III. Programs, Projects, Special Events:

AKD ceremony, guest speaker William DiFazio

IV. Other Department/Program Achievements and Endeavors:

A Visiting Committee gave us an excellent report and made several suggestions which we are in the process of implementing.

V. Activities of Administrative Units within Departments [if applicable]:

Not applicable

VI. Faculty Achievements:

Dean=s office will provide this info, as submitted by faculty