

Department of Sociology
MONTCLAIR STATE UNIVERSITY
Annual Report — 2007-08

I. Staffing

A. New Hires

The Sociology conducted a search for one candidate, found two excellent candidates, and through the good offices and efforts of the Dean was granted an additional line. The two new faculty members are

Faye Allard (Ph.D. University of Pennsylvania)

Sangeeta Parashar (Ph.D. University of Maryland)

B. Tenure, Promotions, Retirements

Prof. Yong Wang was granted tenure.

C. Graduate Assistants

No more program, no more assistants.

II. Curriculum Development

We modified our capstone course, SOCI 400 Senior Research Project so that we will now offer sections of equal size and equal TCHs

We added pre-requisites for all upper-level electives.

The name of SOCI 315 was changed from Stratification to Social Inequalities

We are increasing the number of hybrid course offerings. In the fall, we will have four hybrid sections.

III. Programs, Projects, Special Events:

AKD ceremony

Sixteen students inducted,

Speaker: Gilda Zwerman, "The Emergence of Political Violence in the Sixties"

IV. Other Department/Program Achievements and Endeavors:

One MA degree awarded.

V. Activities of Administrative Units within Departments [if applicable]:

Not applicable

VI. Faculty Achievements:

Dean's office will provide this info, as submitted by faculty